HARLEM RACING.

The morning rain of yesterday rendered the track at Harlem heavy and holding, and mudlarks held supreme sway throughout the afternoon's sport. Despite the threatening weather and inclement conditions, a gathering fully as large as that of Thursday's was present and witnessed a rather dull day's sport, all the finishes being of a tame nature.

The most pretentious affair of the day was the third race, a steeplechase handicap over the short course. On account of his known liking for soft going Scorpio was made a decided favorite, being held at 2 to 1 in the betting, but he ran a poor race, taking the jumps stiffly and losing ground at each take-off. The winner turned up in Ada S. G., well ridden by jockey Downs. He laid along with her in easy action until approaching the ninth jump, where she shot to the front at call and running well within herself thereafter won easily by five lengths from Iceni, which beat Wenlock two for second place. Iceni in nearing the last eighth post bumped into Captain Conover and came near throwing him over the inside rail. He was promptly disqualified for the fouling, Wenlock being placed second and Stamp third. Captain Conover was running strongly at the time of the interference. Greek Dollar fell over the fifth jump and Meddler over the ninth. The latter was well beaten when the accident took place. Porphyrogene showed much speed up to the eighth jump, where he fell away beaten.

The fourth race, a dash of one and a half miles, resulted in an easy victory for Little Elkin. Of the three that started he was held at the longest odds, as good as 4 to 1 being laid against his chances. Lady Chorister, closely pressed by Ravensbury and Little Elkin, led for the first six furlongs, where Robbins rushed the last-named to the front and, as Lady Chorister was well spent, he had no trouble in opening up a gap of three lengths. He remained easily in front thereafter, gradually increasing his lead down the last eighth and passing the wire nine lengths before Ravensbury, which beat Lady Chorister twelve for second place. Lady Chorister tired fast after a mile had been run. Ravensbury made a futile effort to cut down the winner's lead in the last quarter.

An unwieldy field of poor quality faced the barrier in the first race, a dash of one mile, not one of the fourteen scheduled to start dodging the issue. Mackey and Alene Abbott were well backed, while a number of sharpshooters went to Count 'Em Out. The last-named proved to be the best and he had to be to win. Off almost last and apparently hopelessly beaten in the first quarter, he picked up the field gradually thereafter, getting to the front soon after turning for home and winning easily by two lengths from Alene Abbott, which beat Hopefield a neck for second place. Alene Abbott tired rapidly in the last eighth. Hopefield closed up ground fast while coming down the last quarter and finished strongly, almost nipping Alene Abbott on the post. Somersault and James J. Corbett showed early speed. Mackey lurched and labored in the going and evidently cannot extend himself freely through a heavy track.

Emma A. M., which runs to her best form through soft going, had an easy thing of it in the second race, a dash of six furlongs for three-year-olds and upward. Off flying, she at once darted to the front and, displaying keen speed, held an easy command throughout, winning by five lengths from Senora Maria, which beat Howendobler a half for second place. Senora Maria tired perceptibly when a sixteenth out. Howendobler finished fast. Columbian Knight showed early speed and bears watching in the same kind of going. About ran far below expectations and can do better.

Philo, held always about the even money mark in the betting, was easily the best in the fifth race. She revelled in the going and was never headed after the barrier went up, winning running well within herself by two lengths from Egg Nogg, which beat Pericles a neck on the post for second place. Pericles tired palpably in the last sixteenth. Egg Nogg finished strongly and wore down Pericles in the closing strides. Sarah Maxim showed a flash of early speed. Pure Dale had little chance from where she got off.

After a tedious delay of fifteen minutes at the post in the last race, in which Fairbury and Benckart broke up a number of starts, the field was despatched to a straggling send-off, with Benckart virtually left. Alea and Scotch Plaid ran as one horse until just before reaching the last eighth post, where the latter gradually moved away, winning by half a length from Peat, which beat Banish one length for second place. Peat was taken wide at the head of the stretch, losing ground, but he moved up fast down the last eighth and finished resolutely. Alea had enough when a furlong out. Kazan ran at about an even clip throughout and is worthy of consideration in the same kind of field from now on. Fairbury ran well for four and a half furlongs.

The track at the best today will be heavy and holding.

CHARLES REED TO RETIRE.

"I'm 72 years and 5 months old, I've got all the money I want and I'm going to sell every pound of horseflesh I own and quit the business." With these words Charles Reed, one of the most picturesque characters ever identified with American racing, announced his retirement from the turf on the porch of the Grand Union Hotel," says the New York Sun of Wednesday. "It was announced at the close of the sale of the Mackay and Bennington horses that the sale of the Fairview yearlings, bred by Mr. Reed, would take place in the racetrack paddock at Saratoga on Saturday afternoon. There was announcement, also, some months ago, that Mr. Reed might decide to sell most of the stock at Fairview this autumn, but it was not until tonight that Mr. Reed let it be known that he had decided to retire, for good and all, from both the breeding and racing of horses.

"I've raced some of the greatest horses that ever looked through bridles," continued Mr. Reed, "and I've bred more money-winners than any breeder in the United States. I've worked hard and I want to quit. Besides, I can't live forever, and I want to get my estate in shape before I die. My wife, who is also my partner, will be my executor and she won't be bothered with giving bonds, or any of that truck. She'll take what I leave and do as she likes; but I want to save her all the trouble I can, so I'm setting my house in order when I'm able."

"Mr. Reed has been a gambler and a turfman for fifty years. He came north from New Orleans, got acquainted with John Morrissey and finally became his partner in the Saratoga Club.

"At Morrissey's death, Reed succeeded to the proprietorship of the club, his partner being Albert Spencer. Later he took the lease of the Saratoga racetrack and ran it many years.

"In those days he had a large racing stable, his string of jumpers being the most formidable in this country. The late James Lee was his trainer, 'Billy' Donohue was his first jockey for flat races and the great Irish rider, Pat Meany, piloted his horses over the jumps. Among his flat racers were the famous mares Susan Ann, Thora and Henlopen and the colt Timothy, while his jumpers included Trouble, still referred to as the greatest horse that ever went through a field or over the jumps, Disturbance, Waller and Day Star.

"Something like twenty-five years ago Mr. Reed started his first breeding establishment on the western shore of Saratoga Lake and spent a small fortune in equipping it. He imported the English stallions Highlander and Fechter and installed them at the farm. The climate here was found to be too rugged for the breeding of thoroughbreds, and so Mr. Reed sold the property and bought the Fairview Farm, four and a half miles from Gallatin, Tenn. The farm consists of 1,958 acres and is regarded as one of the best equipped breeding establishments in the country. The system of waterworks alone cost $50,000. In each field or paddock is a cypress tub holding enough water for the number of horses intended for that paddock, and these tubs are always kept filled with fresh water pumped from springs on the place.

"This property, together with 124 brood mares, all in foal, and eleven stallions, will be sold to the highest bidder this fall.

"The horses will be sold either at Sheephead Bay or Morris Park. Among the sires to be sold are Knight of the Thistle, St. Blaise, Cheviot, Rey del Rey, Pessara, Phoenix, Sam Weller, Exile and Bouncer, a young sire by Miser—Rebound. Some of the mares are: Active, Algar, Belle Dame, Coventry, Diana, Fedora II., Genevieve, Gretna, Medallion, Kola, Miss Dance, Period, Pretense, Seaweed, Selina, Seraphine and Siberia.

"After Mr. Reed had announced his retirement as a breeder, he was asked if he would also dispose of his club at 5 West Twenty-fourth street, New York city, which he has conducted so long.

"No," was his answer, "I guess I'll stick to that as long as I live. It has been running for half a century and in the old days used to be the New York branch of the Saratoga club. I wouldn't know what to do with myself if I had nothing to do, so I'll stick to the old place."

"Mr. Reed looks much more like a man of 50 than of 72. He is as active as ever and every morning he goes to the baths for an hour's swim in the cool pool. He has two sons and a daughter."

WESTBURY TO BE ABANDONED.

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 15.—W. C. Whitney has decided to abandon his magnificent Westbury stables as a retreat for his horses in training. There is in connection with the establishment, besides the barn which alone cost $100,000, a first-class regulation mile track. Many high priced horses have in the last few years been ruined by the yearly epidemic of influenza, which regularly visited the place, and the latest victim to be retired is the incomparable filly, Endurance by Right, for which Mr. Whitney paid J. W. Schorr $40,000. Hopelessly wind broken she was shipped today to La Belle stud farm at Lexington, Kentucky, for breeding purposes.

John W. Gates left this afternoon for Denver. The Keene stable this season has one of the most formidable string of two-year-olds ever seen in one establishment in this or any other country and it appears that a strong effort is now being made to secure the services of a half dozen of the best jockeys obtainable to ride as many probable starters from that one stable in the Futurity.

An interesting and characteristic incident came to light when the announcement was made today that J. E. Madden had paid jockey Winnie O'Connor a retainer of $2,000 for first call on his services for the next thirty days, which bridges over the time when the great Coney Island event is to be decided.

John W. Schorr today bought of B. Vincent for $6,000 the fast two-year-old colt Bensonhurst. S. S. Brown also disposed of River Pirate to J. E. Madden and T. Hitchcock, Jr., for $8,000.

Athel, the Goughacres' stable candidate in the United States Hotel Stakes to be run tomorrow, worked six furlongs Thursday morning in 1:13 3/4. Skilful, C. R. Ellison's recent purchase at the Mackay sale, turned the same distance in a shade less than 1:14.

L. Jackson was set down three days for foul riding on The Cuckoo in the fifth race Thursday.

The famous and much traveled Nasturtium has arrived here from Whitney's place on Long Island. J. B. Haggin is now sole owner of the colt, he having bought him jointly with Mr. Whitney from A. L. Aste last year, and he will be shipped to Elmen-dorf at an early date for stud purposes.

Flying Buttress was claimed out of the third race today by M. J. Cavanagh.

Larry Waterbury, the crack polo player, has made an important addition to his already growing string of race horses by purchasing the fast western filly Clorita. He has announced his intention to race at New Orleans this coming winter.

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

S. L'Hommedieu sold yesterday all the horses that were in his stable. Lady Chorister was purchased by H. C. Riddle, in whose colors she ran in the fourth race, A. Zimmer bought Trebor, T. Licalzi Prestorius and M. Shannon secured Guy H. for $200, but returned the horse after getting a good look at his legs and L'Hommedieu gave him back the money. Guy H. was bought by L'Hommedieu for $800 after he had won the last race on Wednesday. The following day the horse was entered in a race and the plunger owner bet $4,000 on him, but Guy H. was woefully deficient in speed and finished an indifferent third to Pirate's Queen and Ida V. The adverse criticism that L'Hommedieu has been subjected to of late was the chief reason for getting rid of the horses, as he stated yesterday that whenever one from his stable was defeated the cry was raised that he did not try, and when one of his horses won it was given out that he had scorched the ring and his winnings were estimated to be anywhere from $10,000 to $75,000. As a matter of fact his lessees of late have amounted to nearly double that of his winnings, but no one hears of this; it is always his winnings that are made known and they are magnified until the amount is equivalent to a colossal fortune. His operations in the ring yesterday were decidedly bad and $15,000 would be a conservative estimate of his loss.

The judges were not satisfied with the ride put up by J. Hicks on About, which was the favorite in the second race, and suspended him pending further investigation. The jockey will, however, be permitted to ride out his engagements made today and will have the leg up on Hunter Raine in The Harlem Handicap.

Jockey Kelly, who rode Icen in the steeplechase and finished second, had his mount disqualified for fouling Captain Conover in the stretch. The jockey, in the hope of having the judges overlook his rough riding, lodged a complaint that the winner, Ada S. G., had impeded his mount.

Coupons will be issued to owners and trainers at Hawthorne by Secretary Clark Sunday.

Jockey Coburn was taken suddenly ill after having ridden Mackey in the first race, and by his request was excused by the judges from riding out the remainder of his engagements during the afternoon.

Jockeys C. Johnson and Nelson who fell in the steeplechase were, beyond a shaking up, uninjured. Steeplechase jockey J. Johnson was yesterday released by G. R. Tompkins. The latter's reason for releasing the rider was that all his horses are practically out of condition and it would only be doing Johnson an injustice to keep him on the ground and deprive him of earning a living, as the rider would not be permitted under the rules to accept a mount in which Mr. Tompkins had an entry.

NO RECALL STARTING.

Notwithstanding the opposition to no-recall starting it has been accepted in the east as it was in San Francisco, and there seems to be a great probability of it becoming universal. From almost every section comes reports of it being "tried," and wherever it is tried intelligently and given a fair show it will be upheld. Of course there will always be those who object to it, and the trouble is that long after their objection proper has worn itself out they will continue to object, simply to sustain their own mistaken first opinion. The average American will not give in, he considers himself infallible!

It will, however, be well if some action is taken by the governing bodies in various sections to arrive at some definite understanding, and official notice be taken of certain phenomena which is inseparable from the use of the barrier and the no-recall method. From time to time the barrier is inadvertently sprung, or a horse backs against it and forces it up. At these times certain of the field get away with others standing, and if the boys riding were not amenable to the call of the starter some horse would complete the circuit and claim the purse. This would precipitate a tangle, and there is precedent for such claim being allowed. To date no official action has been taken on the matter, although three such starts inside of ten days have been precipitated on the metropolitan tracks alone. Some day some aggressive owner will make a test case of it. He may get himself disliked, but probably that will not worry him much.

There has been, it is rumored, an unofficial state made by a popular official to the effect that any such start would not be recognized, but how much ice does that statement cut? As a prominent trainer said on hearing of it: "Bosh, it is a start or not, by the courtesy of the jockey," and he about hit the mark. It is a point clearly within the jurisdiction of the ruling bodies of various sections, and there appears no reason for it not being taken up, other than the old stereotyped of not liking to be told what should be done before they are ready to do it.

In some sections a bell rings when the barrier rises and unless the bell rings it is no start. The bell does not ring when an unintentional rise of barrier takes place. There lies a solution of the problem in a nutshell. Where is the bell and the ruling on the metropolitan tracks? Either it or a satisfactory substitute should be put in use without delay.—Spirit of the Times.

Time, 27⁵/₈, 53⁵/₈, 1:22⁵/₈, 1:49⁵/₈.
 Winner—Ch. c. by Counter Tenor—Out of Sight (trained by E. L. Talley).
 Went to post at 2:30. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Count 'Em Out was much the best and had to be to win. Off almost last he began slowly, but while going down the backstretch picked up the field fast and coming strongly in the last eighth was going away at the end. Alone Abbott tired palpably when a sixteenth out and just lasted long enough to get second place. Hopefield came with a rush in the last sixteenth and would have been second in a stride or two. The Texan showed early speed. Somersault was well beaten after showing well for six furlongs. James J. Corbett showed well for six furlongs. Mackey labored in the going and appeared unable to extend himself.

Corrected weights—Hopefield, 108.
 Overweights—Mackey, 24 pounds; Simmoon, 3.

Captain Conover was running fast when the foul occurred. Scorpio jumped stiffly, losing ground throughout. Greek Dollar fell over the fifth jump and Meddler over the ninth.

Winner—B. c. by Atheling—Miss Glennon (trained by W. F. Presgrave).
Went to post at 2:15. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Shorthorse, out-run early and trailing, closed up in the last quarter with a tremendous rush and won going away. Mamie Worth cut out a terrific pace hard held, but tired and was worn down at the end by the winner. Olefant, evidently short, went well for the first half, but tired at the end. Examiner is improving. Old Lady displayed speed for a half.

Scratched—33068 Acefull, 118; (34288) John A. Scott, 107; 33307 Singing Girl, 100; 34240 Burgundy, 95; 34213 Scottish Blue, 90.

Shorthorse, show, out. Mamie Worth, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—Ch. g. by Morocco—Kisbern (trained by W. F. Presgrave).
Went to post at 2:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving. Moor galloped in front unextended from start to finish and was easing up at the end. San Andres, lucky and running on the inside, was kept from bearing out on turns and is greatly improved. Frank McKee held on gamely after hard early usage. Boaster was probably short and can do better. Five Nations ran on the outside and suffered all around the turn from San Andres' bolting tendencies, but quit in the last quarter and ran a bad race.

Scratched—34264 Bluff, 111; 34114 Sweet Tooth, 105; 34264 King's Favorite, 101; 34211 Brandy Smash, 101; 34285 Huntress, 100; 33159 May J., 85.

Moor, show, 2 to 1. San Andres, show, 1 to 2. Frank McKee, show, 3 to 5. Five Nations, show, 2 to 5.
